

LOCAL GOVERNING BOARD THE TOTNES HUB 2017 - 2018

Chair: Anna Neville

Teacher

Four children at Landscope

Child Protection and Anti-Bullying Advisor to the Governing Council

Co-opted Governor – End of term 31/03/2020

Responsibility for Safeguarding & Recruitment Procedures

Anna Neville is a qualified Primary School teacher with five years of teaching experience. Anna taught in an inner city school in Plymouth for three years, a large middle school in Milton Keynes for a year and a small village church school in Buckinghamshire for two years.

Anna's specialist subject areas were Art and Literacy.

For the past twelve years Anna has stayed at home to bring up her four sons. Isaac, her eldest son, has just started at SDCC. Her three other sons (Conrad 9, Edgar 6 and Magnus 4) all attend Landscope. Anna has also been an active member of the schools PTFA (FOLS)

Anna joined the governing body in March 2012 as a parent governor and also took the lead for Safeguarding.

Vice Chair: Cat Radford

Parent Governor – End of term 28/09/20

Two children currently at Harbertonford C of E Primary School

Cat has been involved with various school committees and feels she has a reasonable understanding of how a school works and what role a parent can play in support. She is clerk to Harberton Parish Council so has a growing understanding of when committees are their most effective. Cat works in the field of arts and culture as a project manager, evaluator and consultant, having been a student at Dartington College of Arts, a member of a theatre company and teaching on the theatre and arts management courses. She says 'life is varied and busy and I look forward to bringing all these experiences to the governing board'.

Janet Watts:

OFSTED Inspector and Retired Head Teacher

Co-opted Governor - End of term 31/03/2020

Governor Monitoring Lead

Janet Watts is a qualified Primary School teacher. She taught in several different schools, before having two primary headships in Hampshire, one at a small village school and then a large primary school.

Together with husband Neil, Janet moved to Devon in 1991 as a local authority adviser for primary schools. In the early days of Ofsted inspections, Janet both led inspections and was a team member, employed by a range of inspection contractors.

Janet retired from full time work in 1999, but continued to work as an educational consultant, continued with inspection work, and was an accredited assessor of candidates for the NPQH (National Professional Qualification for Headteachers). Janet was invited to become an occasional trainer for Devon Governor Services, from 2002 - 2005.

Janet has previous experience as a governor at a primary school in Newton Abbot; she continues to work as an inspector for Ofsted and as a consultant supporting primary schools.

Janet's hobbies are horse riding, caravanning, gardening and walking her dogs. As chair of the teaching and learning committee, Janet continues (and in this she has never changed) to care passionately that every child is entitled to a good education in a school that is well led, where children are taught by good teachers and experience a rich and wide curriculum. A school in which children achieve and make progress, both academically and socially, but above all enjoy learning.

Rev Tom Benson

Ex Officio Foundation Governor – Appointed by the Diocese

Responsibility for Community & Parent Links

Reverend Tom Benson is the vicar responsible for the Dart Valley Mission Community covering Buckfastleigh, Dean Prior, Landscope, Staverton and Littlehempston. Before ordination Tom was a registered psychiatric nurse, working for 24 years in hospitals and in the community.
